Limits of the Visible: Representing the Great Hunger

By Gibbons Luke, Luke Gibbons

Quinnipiac University Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 276 x 218 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Ireland's Great Hunger Museum at Quinnipiac University publishes Famine Folios, a unique resource for students, scholars and researchers, as well as general readers, covering many aspects of the Famine in Ireland from 1845 - 1852 - the worst demographic catastrophe of nineteenth-century Europe. The essays are interdisciplinary in nature, and make available new research in Famine studies by internationally established scholars in history, art history, cultural theory, philosophy, media history, political economy, literature and music. This publications initiative is devised to augment the Museum experience, and is part of the Museum's commitment to making its collection accessible to audiences of all ages and levels of educational interest. The booklets are produced to the highest level, beautifully illustrated with works from the Museum and related collections. It ensures that audiences have access to the latest scholarship as it pertains to both the historical and contemporary dimensions of the collection. The absence of photographs of the Irish Famine has been attributed to the shortcomings of a medium then in its infancy, but it may also be due to certain limitations...
