Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An excerpt of a review from The Union Seminary Review, Volume 32: THIS is a novel. It is a remarkable one. It deals with the Spiritualism, or Spiritism, which is so marked a feature of present day life in England; and we must add, in our own country also. The author is, as we understand, a son of the late archbishop Benson, of Canterbury, and a brother of Arthur Benson, a writer perhaps better known to us than this man. It is said, however, that E. F. stands higher in England than Arthur does as a literary man. The purpose of the author in this story is evidently not merely to entertain an idle hour; he means to read us a lesson. The story, however, is intensely interesting. A young nobleman who has lost a very promising brother, himself develops a very frail physique, and for that reason is treated by his anxious parents with the most solicitous care. Early in youth he discovers that he has a remarkable power, the power to submerge his conscious state. In this state as he gradually learns, he can receive communications from a mysterious visitant whom he calls Martin. For a time he indulges this faculty simply for entertainment. But as he grows older he finds Martin ready to offer him counsel, and in a certain grave crisis in his moral life Martin becomes his guide. From that day on he is plied with the subtlest sophistry. At first Martin seems to speed like an angel of life. But as Archie follows more and more consistently his counsel he becomes a totally different person. He deteriorates rapidly until those Who love...
