Baron Foster, at the Spring Assizes of Wexford, 1832 This trial, Gentlemen, I did expect would have come on at the last assizes. From certain circumstances upon which I will not now particularly dwell, it has stood over until the present. I shall rejoice if the effect of the delay has been to enable us to enter into the investigation of it in that calm and cool spirit which should always characterize proceedings of a court of justice. Gentlemen - The unfortunate woman, into the circumstances of whose death we are now about to enquire, was one of several persons who were killed at Newtownbarry on the 18th of June, 1831. It is impossible for any person of humanity or feeling not to deplore deeply the effusion of human blood which took place on that unfortunate occasion. It has been the anxious desire of the government which I have...
