Thy husband is thy lord, thy life, thy keeper, Thy head, thy sovereign. Shakespeare. There s a beautiful toast To the feminine host--There s a swing to the ladies--God bless em, But the women should cry With their glasses on high, A toast to the men who dress em! When a man hasn t anything to say That is the best time not to say it. It takes more genius to be a man than manhood to be a genius. As to the differences between men and women I believe that when their accounts have been properly balanced it will be found that it has been a case of six of one and half a dozen of the other, both in the matter of sovereignty and of mereness, and therefore without prejudice I propose that the sixes to which I belong shall rise and cordially drink to the health of the other half dozens, our kind and generous hosts of to-night. Sarah Grand. Man was built after all other things had been made and pronounced good. If not, he would have insisted on-giving his orders as to the rest of the job. Let every man be master of his time Till seven at night. Shakespeare. He is the half part of a blessed man Left to be finished by such as she. Shakespeare. Man is certainly stark mad; he cannot make a worm, and yet he will be...
